This is a lovely holiday home with central heating and double glazing. It has free standing furniture in the lounge and dining areas and a well fitted kitchen.

The living area is open plan and gives a spacious feeling and the front opening patio doors making the caravan very light. There's also a feature fire place and TV point in the lounge; the hallway leads to the twin bedroom, separate toilet, shower-room and main bedroom which is en-suite to the shower-room.

The Solitaire has the potential to make some one a lovely holiday retreat. Come along and see for yourself!
